

Sister M. Pauline Posedly, D.M.

Sister M. Pauline Posedly, a member of the Daughters of Our Lady of Mercy, Villa Rossello, Newfield, NJ died on April 4, 2013, at Misericordia Nursing & Rehabilitation Nursing Center in York, Pa where she had been a resident for four years. She was 81.

Born in Ramey, PA, Sister Pauline was the daughter of the late Jacob and Mary Kasprick Posedly. She entered the Congregation of the Daughters of Our Lady of Mercy, in Newfield, NJ, on July 16, 1953, and professed her Vows on August 16, 1955.

Totally dedicated to her religious vocation, Sister Pauline's life was characterized by her deep life of persevering prayer and her dedication to the ministry of teaching. She earned her BS in education from College Misericordia, Dallas, PA.

She taught at the following schools staffed by her religious order: St. Mary Magdalene Millville, Little Flower, Berkeley Heights and St. Francis of Assisi, Vineland in New Jersey; in Massachusetts at Mt. Carmel School, Springfield, and Sacred Heart School, Milford. She also taught in Pennsylvania at St. Joan of Arc, Hershey, St. Ann's, Steelton, Most Precious Blood and Mother of Grace in Hazleton, St. Joseph, Berwick, and at St. Mary's, Old Forge. From 1996 until her retirement in 2005, she served as Coordinator of Religious Education at Most Precious Blood Parish, Hazleton, PA.